The effective date of these expanded offerings is Friday, May 8, 2009. The program offer period will end on May 26, 2009. All separations and retirements may occur at the Company's discretion on or before May 27, 2009.

While you may be eligible for multiple special program offerings, you can only accept one offer. If you have previously accepted an EVTEP, have not separated, and not rescinded your acceptance you may rescind your EVTEP acceptance in writing at the Local Employment Office and choose to accept the SER, if newly eligible.

Employees newly eligible for the increased lump sum who have previously accepted an EVTEP, have not separated, and not rescinded his/her acceptance will receive the increased lump sum amount without need to re-submit an acceptance.

If you are interested you should pick up a package at your Local Employment Office. These packages contain additional details about the program. If you already received a retirement estimate with a previous offering, a new updated estimate will not be provided. If you feel you are newly eligible, please contact the Local Employment Office.

All benefits are subject to the terms and conditions of the governing plan documents.
